Encouragement for Theodore

“The eyes of the Lord search the whole earth in order to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him ...” (2 Chronicles 16:9a, NLT).

Translator Theodore commented, “This part of this verse encourages me so much, to know that God is with me. It teaches me that what I need is to be faithful to God. My heart should be fully committed to God.”

The team had hoped to finish the first drafts of both 2 Samuel and 2 Chronicles. They finished 2 Samuel, but didn't quite get to the end of 2 Chronicles. That should happen soon, since they're on Chapter 31.

- Praise God that Theodore and others who read the Word in Lughulu are finding encouragement to draw near to God.
- Please continue to pray for translator Emmanuel. His heart problem is doing better, but now he is having trouble with his kidneys. The team asks prayer for his complete healing.

Processing Paul's Letters

The team is still working on making the corrections the consultant suggested for 1 and 2 Corinthians and Ephesians. After they finish that stage, they'll almost be ready to publish those books! They also consultant checked Philippians, Colossians, 1 and 2 Thessalonians and Philemon.

- Please pray that the consultant will be available and the team will be able to stay on schedule in implementing the recommended changes.

Making Christ at Home

“Then Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him. Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong” (Ephesians 3:17, NLT).

Some of the Lughulu people are making Christ at home in their hearts. Like Theodore as he reads the Scriptures, one at a time, lives are changing. God's Word does its work, and the Holy Spirit brings conviction and assurance of truth. God's unchanging Word changes lives, whether in Tanzania or in the United States. Consider sharing with someone how God is at work in your own life.
